

COTTON TO BRING HUNDRED A BALE.

REPRESENTATIVE HEFLIN PRE-DICTS TWENTY CENTS PER POUND FOR COTTON.

Washington, October 17:—Cotton at more than $100 a bale is predicted by Representative Heflin of Alabama in a statement issued from his office.

Mr Heflin says that the cotton holding movement in the South will become general and that prices will soar, all on account of the fact that the war is using cotton faster than it can be produced. He declares that the cotton crop for this year will not be over 10,000,000 bales and that the domestic consumption will account for but 2,000,000 bales and that 2,000,000 bales will fall short of the foreign needs. He declares that already this year more than 9,000,000 bales of cotton have been exported.

"Cotton will be higher than at any time since the War Between the Sections," said Mr Heflin. "Germany is already in the Southern market buying and storing cotton for future use. It will require more than 500,000 bales of cotton and linters for the manufacture of powder and high explosives for our army and navy. The cotton holding movement in the South will become very general before very long and then prices will soar. I shall not be surprised to see seed selling at $60 a ton before Christmas. Cotton seed meal is selling as high as $36 a ton and some are asking $40. Cottonseed oil has advanced in price and is now in great demand. Cottonseed hulls are being used more extensively than ever and the linters cut from the seed are being consumed more rapidly than ever before, when bleached linters sell for 10 cents a pound. I am expecting to see the $100 and more for a bale of cotton and $60 to $65 for a ton of seed."—The State.

Southern Life Insurance.

In order that the South may become a lending instead of a borrowing region, the savings of the Southern people must be kept in the South. A large part of them, through life insurance companies, are now sent to the North.

This is altogether an unnecessary process. The life insurance business is thoroughly organized and throughout the world its principles and methods are fully understood. Indeed, the conduct of the life insurance company involves less risk of losing money that is invested in it, whether it be a stock or mutual company, than does the conduct of a bank or industrial corporation. Yesterday The State printed a dispatch from Greenville to the purport that the Southeastern Life Insurance Company of that city had sold insurance to the amount of $1,100,000 in the last month. The company has been in operation ten years. It is an "old line concern," and, in the opinion of experts, a buyer of a policy in a company of its character obtains the same degree of safety that he would have were his contract with one of the companies of larger assets. In other words, in these smaller companies, conservatively managed and under State supervision, the proportion of resources to liabilities is quite so great as it is in the great companies.

The institution in Greenville is one of a number established in the South within the last 10 or 15 years and they afford a medium whereby the people of the South can fortify their own country in a financial sense. While they have been notably successful, one doubts if they have received so much patronage as they deserve from the Southern people. Our people do not yet understand how much they have to gain by assisting in their rapid growth. The ability of the South to contribute to make them of great financial strength is not less than was that of the North and West 50 or 60 years ago when such companies as the "Equitable" and the "Mutual" were passing through their period of infancy. The State would be far from advising against buying insurance from other than Southern companies. It would be blind folly for our people to draw any sectional line in a matter of this kind but they err in the indulgence of the notion that merely because Northern companies are older and larger they are safer than our own. The Southern concerns suffer from a prevailing Southern habit of mind that has no just basis in principle or fact. The time has come when it is not less safe to buy an insurance policy made in South Carolina, Georgia or North Carolina than it is to buy a leg of mutton grown in one of these States.—The State.

She Will Recover

So her doctor said. Her friends and neighbors felt sure of it too. They have used Peruna themselves and know of its merits. That old cough that had worried her for years and years, for which she had taken all sorts of cough medicines, has disappeared. Peruna is doing the work. She will recover. Indeed, she has recovered.

Her name is Mrs. William Hohmann, 2764 Lincoln Ave., Chicago, Ill. She had suffered with catarrh of the bronchial tubes and had a terrible cough ever since a child. As she got older she grew worse. She coughed both winter and summer. Had to sit up at night. Could not sleep. "But all that has left me now, Peruna has cured me."

There are others, and there is a reason.

Major Hyde Declared Mayor.

Major Tristram T Hyde has been declared the nominee of the Democrats of Charleston for Mayor. He was so declared by the city Democratic Executive committee Saturday afternoon after a session which had lasted continuously from 11:45 o'clock in the forenoon. The box for Club 2, of Ward 10, which was protested, was thrown out. A request for a recount of the votes being voted down, the minority faction having already quit the room when this action was taken, leaving in a body when the Ward 10, Club 2, box was thrown out. Had the Ward 10, Club 2, box not been thrown out, Major Hyde's majority would have stood at thirty-eight votes on the basis of the action taken by the committee on the challenged votes. On the basis of the returns as declared by the committee, the vote stood: Grace, 2,981; Hyde, 3,109, Hyde's majority being 128.
